

BIO

Gaz Jackson is one of the industry's leading dog trainers, training dogs full time over a 36-year period.

To date, Gaz Jackson has trained in excess of 20,000 dogs in obedience, protection, or detection, supplying canine and handler training to the police, army, prisons, air force, and state and federal agencies internationally.

Gaz has conducted several law enforcement dog training seminars with international speakers and patrons. He is an international speaker, conducting seminars, events, workshops, and lectures, training handlers and trainers around the world in all aspects of dog training.

Gaz now works as an author and speaker around Australia and overseas, and provides dog training, private lessons, seminars, and workshops.

Here is a list of 'Firsts' trained by Gaz:

- 1st Megafauna Fossil detection Dog.
- 1st Bio Archaeology Dog.
- 1st Quoll Detection Dog.
- 1st and 2nd Koala Detection Dog.
- Trained the world's youngest Narcotic Dog, who was 11 weeks of age.
- 1st Pigmy Blue Tongue Lizard Detection Dog.
- 1st Slider Turtle and Egg Detection Dog.
- 1st Three Cane Toad Detection Dog.
- 1st Tobacco Contamination dog for Phillip Morris.
- Trained Australia's 1st private Narcotic Detection Dogs.
- Trained Australia's 1st Cancer Detection Dog.
- Australia's 1st operational Cadaver dog employed by the police for body searches.