President Welcome - 18.9.2021

Welcome to our 2021 Shetland Sheepdog Club of Qld Championship and Open show.

Thankyou for those attending and those exhibiting, and those working.

The Committee and other Club members and great individual sponsorship from other groups such as The Brisbane Sheltie Club have made today possible.

There has been many things up in the air, with lockdowns and covid generally, decisions have been made harder.

We have an amazing group of Sheltie lovers and owners who have generously sponsored this show too make it happen.

Sadly Shelley Turner is not here, she is also saddened that with last year and now this year 21 to be in lockdown. She aims to be here next year. Fingers crossed with vaccinations that will be possible.

Thankyou to our Judges Mrs M Hickey (QLD) and Mrs L Roebig (Qld) for giving their time today to judge our shows and also Margaret Alderton and Joy Lanham

Thanks also to our official photographer Patrik Berger.

I hope everyone enjoys today and as said before we all take home the best dog on the day.

Helen Gordon

President

Resume – Mrs Michelle Hickie (Open Show)

Thank you to the SSQC for your invitation to judge your open show.

I have been involved in the Dog World for more than 45 years. My parents were successful Great Dane exhibitors/breeders in NSW. I started off as a junior handler back in the 70's. My husband Philip and I took over my parents prefix Riesenhaft in the late 80's. We have owned and or bred many BIS BISS and Royal BIG winners and Supreme CH in three breeds.

While my main breed is Great Danes my children are also successful handlers. Bianca with her blue merle Sheltie "Brady" Sup CH Tiakina Tilyabluintheface bred by Carol Watson. She currently still owns two Sheltie girls a Tiakina blue and Deerod sable. Our son Elliott campaigned a Keeshond to multi BIS also his supreme title and was Dogs Queensland Puppy Of The Year 2014

I am licensed to judge all Non Sporting breeds at championship level Utility and Working groups at open show level.

I have judged specialties in Poodles, Dalmatian, OES and am looking forward to judging this event.

Resume – Mrs Lesley Roebig (Championship Show)

I started my journey into dog showing when my husband and I purchased a cream cairn terrier for our daughter Kristy in 1994.

Following this purchase we brought a Cocker spaniel for me to show from the lines of the much respected all breeds judge and breeder Noel Boddy.

My enthusiasm for dog showing has not decreased over the years. I have had a lot of fun and seen a lot of Queensland and New south wales on this journey and decided to get my judges licence starting with group three. I now have group two, one, four and five at championship level.

I think it is important to be involved in a hobby as much as possible that you love. I was secretary of the newly formed Queensland Gun Dog Association for many years, I am currently a member of the Shetland Sheepdog Club of Queensland, Secretary of the Australian Terrier club of Queensland, I am committee member of the Queensland Kennel Council, and the sporting Terrier Club of Queensland.

Thank you for your trust to judge the Shetland Sheepdog club of Qld show on the 18th September 2021 as a replacement for Mrs Shelly Turner from Victoria. My heart goes out to Shelly Turner as our show in 2020 was cancelled and with Covid in 2021 once again is unable to judge. I know Shelly was looking forward to coming and being a Shetland sheepdog person I am sure would draw a much bigger entry. Her background and history of this wonderful breed far surpasses mind but I am looking forward to putting my reading and studying of the breed into practice.

Thank you for the invitation.
Lesley Roebig
