“Edelhof GSPs” & “Tzani Griffons”

Born on the island of Jersey, where the cows come from, I immigrated to Sydney, Australia in 1968. Always a dog lover my interest in show dogs began when I bought a Cocker Spaniel from Royoni Kennels in Sydney.

In 1975 I moved to a 10-acre property near Mapleton in Queensland where the ticks were prolific, and the soil was red. I decided that I needed practical, short haired dog that wouldn't show the red dirt and on which the ticks could easily be found. I did some research and discovered a relatively new breed in Australia, the German Shorthaired Pointer

Edelhof was founded in 1976. When roughly translated into English it means “the home of the noble”. My vision then was to produce versatile Gundogs with “beauty, brains and bird sense” and I'm proud to say that Edelhof has lived up to this ideal winning in all fields of competition.

My first GSP was Ch Wildheart Geben who was joined soon after by Ch Ausdauer Jinx ... and my love affair with this wonderful breed began. I have bred and owned many GSPs since, too many to mention here, but there were three who were extra special to me. The beautiful but controversial, solid black dog, Ch Edelhof Erasmus aka Razy, who was the first solid black GSP in the World to gain a show championship. Ch Edlehof Ophion aka Spider, who was my first Specialty BIS winner and my favourite of all Ch Burnbrook Eldamar aka Paddington, my heart dog.

In 1995 my daughter Jade and I moved to Amaté Park, an 85-acre property at Ocean View, in the mountains northwest of Brisbane. Jade joined me in partnership and in 2006. Then after we won BIS with Ch Edelhof Vespers at the GSP National in Victoria I decided that it was time to hand over my prefix and all my GSPs to Jade as I could no longer keep up with them, with dignity, around the ring.

I have always loved a challenge and to do things that are a little out of the ordinary and so I imported three long wool llamas from the USA as foundation stock for my llama herd at Amaté Park. Over the next few years more imports arrived until I had one of the most beautiful herds of long wool and Suri llamas that you could find anywhere in the World. The attention these aristocratic and elegant animals attracted was amazing and so in 2000 I began developing a tourist centre at Amaté Park and opened The Cria Café/Restaurant.

In late 2004, after a bout of ill health, I realised that I could no longer continue to manage the farm alone and so devastating as it was the property, and all my llamas, were sold. I moved to Twin Waters on the Sunshine Coast where I met my husband Tim and we embarked upon a new adventure breeding Griffon Bruxellois and Petit Brabançon. Then home sick for the mountains I moved back to Ocean View with Tim in 2007 where we built our beautiful French chateau, La Tour Tzani, and continue to breed Griffons under the Tzani prefix. We love to show and to travel so these days we can often be seen driving to shows all over Australia in DA1SY, our red motorhome covered in white daisies.

I began my judging career in 1980 with the Gundog Group and finally gained All Breed status in 2002. Over the years I have judged at All Breed and Specialty shows all over the World and have had the privilege of meeting many interesting people and of judging many amazing dogs

Meet Hunter.

PART OF OUR FAMILY.

Hotondo Homes adopted 'Hunter' our German Shorthaired Pointer back in 2010 alongside the launch of its 'A Great Find' campaign. The idea of the hunting dog in the campaign was intended to creatively symbolise the campaign tagline 'A Great Find.' He was aptly named Hunter as it suits the breed, plus it's a great name!

Originally Hunter was going to be partnered with our brand during the 2010 campaigns, but he soon became part of our family. When builders say they are a Hotondo Homes builder, a common reply is "you're the one with the dog."

Using Hunter alongside the Hotondo Homes branding and marketing also complements and showcases our enduring respect for the use of family values in business.

Hunter has become such a beloved member of the Hotondo Homes family and can now be found at many of our events. Our builders and clients alike have fallen in love with him and some have had to get their very own 'Hunter'; they're the perfect mate to have around.
