A little bit about our Judges:

Paul Stevenson

With my wife we have bred English Setters under the Carlyra prefix for over 40 years and exhibited a number of best in show winners. We have taken trips overseas for the express purpose of observing setters and golden retrievers in the desire to expand our knowledge of the breeds and in some cases purchase breeding stock.

I have judged Gundogs in all Australian states and New Zealand and in 1996 I was privileged to judge the South Australian Setter Club Championship Show comprising of over 80 exhibits. All 4 breeds were exhibited with an outstanding entry of Gordon Setters. .

Kim Meyer, New South Wales

This is my first judging trip to Queensland in many years where I have judged any setters. I regard it as the highest honour to be asked to judge a specialty of any breed, but particularly one for a subgroup that is close to my heart. I thank the exhibitors most sincerely for their entries.

This is the second subgroup specialty I have judged, the first being the inaugural Setter & Spaniel Club of the ACT championship show in the mid-1990s. At that show I awarded a liver belton English Setter, the only one I've ever seen. A short while later I received an indignant letter from Miss Margaret Barnes in the UK, Suntop English Setters, protesting that the colour is untypical and should not be awarded. I disagreed – if the breed standard allows it, I allow it!

I have also judged two large Gundog specialties in New Zealand, in the mid-1990s and in 2017. Apart from that, I have judged setters as part of Gundog group appointments at all-breeds show on many, many occasions over the past 40 years of my judging career, in South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. In the past entries were much higher and it is really sad that setters seem to be vulnerable breeds these days, as they have so much to offer, as family dogs, show dogs or hunting dogs.

In writing this resume I cast my mind back to the first setter I ever knew. He was a beautiful Irish Setter who roamed the streets near my school in the early 1970s and always came up for a pat. His name was Rory, according to the disc on his collar, which also gave his telephone number. For months my best friend and I drove his owners crazy by phoning up and asking to speak to Rory! Innocent mischief. Later I often travelled to shows with my late friend Trevor Tinker, Casalinho English Setters and learned a lot.

I have not owned setters myself. I am a Cocker specialist and have been since 1973. My Stapleton Cockers are behind a great many champions in South Africa, Australia and New Zealand.

I started my judging career in South Africa in 1980 and have judged every year since. I currently judge Gundogs, Hounds, Nonsporting, Boxers, Pekingese and Welsh Corgis. I am very involved in judges' (and general) education through a Facebook group I administer called Pondering the English Cocker Spaniel, which is currently sitting on 5,500 members across the world. A frequent theme is the differences between setter and Cocker breed type, so I often post articles on setter type and the work setters are bred to perform. I am also known for my dog photography and writings on Cockers around the world. I pride myself on being 100% honest and a thorough judge who gives each exhibit an equal opportunity.

Whoever I put up today, remember that YOU get to take the best dog home!

Hilare Yeates, Queensland

Becoming a judge has been a dream and goal of mine for many years, but it just didn't feel like the timing was right in the past. In 2019 I said to myself, "Stop putting it off." So began the process to start on a massive journey, and it is a journey, one that I look forward to exploring as it continues.

In 1996, after deciding on our family pet, a golden retriever girl from Willowbrook Kennels in Western Australia with her litter sister joining us a few weeks later. I didn't know much about showing, but a few months later, taking my two young pups along to my daughter's day care for "bring your pet along" day, I met someone who also had taken a couple golden retrievers in. We chatted and she invited me to come and watch the show that was on that weekend. I loved it and from then on was hooked. I joined the WA Canine and entered my first show about 4 weeks later and I loved it and the following year applied for my prefix. MYSHALAIR est 1997.

While at shows, I met & fell in love with the other breed - cocker spaniels. Having a break from showing, I returned to showing in 1999 then added a gold show girl in early 2000 and Sagapore Golden Dreams was the first cocker I ever entered at Brisbane Royal and the Cocker Spaniel National held in Brisbane 2000. In 2004, after a major change in family circumstances, my 3 children and 1 dog made the massive relocation move from Perth to Brisbane, where once settled I returned to the show world with my first blue roan. During this time, I also added another amazing breed close to my heart, American Cocker Spaniels- showing Rogue Ch Sharnbrae League Of His Own to almost half way to his grand before he was retired for medical reasons. In 2013, I met a lovely lady who has been a big part of my life with cockers, her friendship and guidance has been a strength to me ever since, Mrs Lorraine Emerton of Watersmeet Cocker Spaniels. Having shown & titled several of her dogs for her, she gave me my heart – Dizzy, Ch Watersmeet Dancing At Dusk. One of my proudest moments being winning Baby Puppy In Show with a home bred girl at the 2018 Cocker National. It is due to people like this and many others that my love of dogs, and dog showing has grown, to me with Judging being the next step to broaden my journey.

I am extremely honoured to have been asked judge your club show today.
