The benefits of DNA testing

- ✓ Ensures your responsibility as a breeder in maintaining the best standards when it comes to the health of your animals
- ✓ Allows you to screen for relevant diseases – assess genetic status (clear or carrier or affected)
- ✓ Screens for desirable traits such as coat colours & hair length
- ✓ A DNA profile (fingerprint) allows you to verify any stud service, multiple sires and confirm pedigrees
- ✓ Focusing your testing on your breeding stock will allow you to predict outcomes for future litters

So simple, easy & pawfect...

- ✓ DNA collection is via a non-invasive cheek swab
- ✓ Test at any age
- ✓ Orivet's Innovative Full Breed Profiles screen for all diseases and traits relevant to your breed

The Judge

Tracy Larkin-Cox – Shiraa Salukis, South Africa

I guess you could say I was born into dogs and dog showing. My parents bred and showed the Booksale Bull Terriers (both in the UK and South Africa) and it would be fair to say they had quite an influence on that breed in both countries. As a 'puppy' I shared my pram with their first BT, who they got whilst we were living in Kenya (where my brother and I were born), and later learned to stand and walk by holding onto her collar.

Back in the UK, at about 5 or 6 years of age, I saw my first Salukis at a family gathering. Hope and David Waters (who was my grandmother's cousin) came with their hounds (including Crufts Reserve Best in Show winner Freya) and it was love at first sight. However, it was not until I was in my early 20s that I acquired my first Saluki (a cream rescue called Wahli, from Daxlore lines).

Unusually for a rescue, I got his papers and was able to show him in the UK, even gaining a Challenge Certificate with him. While still in England, I obtained two more Salukis and began my judging journey leading to a deeper love of all Sighthounds.

Then, as a family, we moved to South Africa – with the dogs naturally. Here I continued my judges education, qualifying to judge the Hound Group and being invited to judge overseas at specialties as well as Group level.

I currently share my time, living in a suburb of Sacramento called Carmichael and a town called Somerset West in the Western Cape, South Africa, benefitting from the best of both worlds.

I very much look forward to my trip to Sydney, my first time visiting your beautiful country, and am deeply honoured to have been invited. Thank you.
