Alison Tabrett (Tas)

I started my journey with Dalmatians in 2002 and quickly fell in love with this beautiful breed. My first Dalmatian was Portia, (Sarasota Porche) who was a family member along with my two small children, she fitted in well and was loved by everyone who met her. I tried my hand at showing and was lucky enough to title Portia, but ultimately she was the beloved family member who gave us many years of joy.

I decided to breed Portia in 2008, not having my own prefix, I was lucky enough to breed the litter under the prefix of a good friend Tull Luttrell with the Sarasota Prefix, and Portia provided me with a lovely litter of 9 puppies. I chose a beautiful liver puppy bitch from this litter and she became my next show dog. Lily (Sarasota Little Diva) titled at the age of 7, years of perseverance in the show ring paid off. I bred Lily in 2012, again under the Sarasota prefix and Lily produced a lovely litter of 9 puppies. This litter produced my heart dog Ivan (Supreme Ch Sarasota Act Of Valour) who is still with me, retired and loving a lazy life on the couch. Ivan is a multi BIS winner and sire of multiple champions.

The first litter under my own prefix was born in 2013. Puppies from this litter have titled both in Australia and New Zealand, and I am proud of what they have achieved. Subsequent litters have produced multiple RUBIS and BIG winners. I show sparingly now days and currently have two girls in my show team, I enjoy showing them and they have both had some lovely wins. My Dalmatians (all 6 of them) are beloved family members, win or lose in the show ring they are special to me and I couldn't live without them.

I am looking forward with great excitement to be judging this beautiful breed.
