A great find

Antje Engelbart-Schmidt

I was born 1957 in Hannover, my father was a hunter and already bred GSP in 1928 – he allowed me to handle “my” first GSP Vilja vom Solling 1970 so I early fell in love with hunting and dogs.

I got my hunting licence in 1984 and I have been judging as a JGHV-Verbandsrichter since 1988.

My first two litters I bred in the former famous kennel “von der Asseburg” of my friend Maria Seeliger – in 1990 I bred the first litter in my own kennel “vom Kronsberg” with today 31 litters – meanwhile together with my two daughters.

My husband – also hunter and working judge – always supports me and we are very proud all our four children became hunters and GSP-handlers as well.

As my children grew up I was able to consecrate myself to the training, breeding and hunting with my dogs which is most important to me.

“From performance to beauty-standard” – should be important to every hunting dog breeder.

Beside being a hunter, breeder and judge I am a proud Grandmother of currently four grandchildren, very active hunting-horn-blower, the leader of the cynology section in our home hunting club in Gelnhausen and vice breeding ward at Klub Kurzhaar Kurhessen.

As a VDH-Special-Breed-Judge I got the chance to judge show and works e.g. Turkey, Italy, USA, Finland, Serbia, Austria, ...

It is a great honour to be invited and I am looking forward to judge the dogs here in Australia and to meet many friends of the GSP.

Meet Hunter.

PART OF OUR FAMILY.

Hotondo Homes adopted 'Hunter' our German Shorthaired Pointer back in 2010 alongside the launch of its 'A Great Find' campaign. The idea of the hunting dog in the campaign was intended to creatively symbolise the campaign tagline 'A Great Find.' He was aptly named Hunter as it suits the breed, plus it's a great name!

Originally Hunter was going to be partnered with our brand during the 2010 campaigns, but he soon became part of our family. When builders say they are a Hotondo Homes builder, a common reply is "you're the one with the dog."

Using Hunter alongside the Hotondo Homes branding and marketing also complements and showcases our enduring respect for the use of family values in business.

Hunter has become such a beloved member of the Hotondo Homes family and can now be found at many of our events. Our builders and clients alike have fallen in love with him and some have had to get their very own 'Hunter'; they're the perfect mate to have around.

We have display homes and sales centres all around Australia.
