

Border Collie Club of NSW Inc
Scent Work Trial
Sunday 18 June 2023

The Rotunda, Bill Spilsted Complex
44 Luddenham Road, Orchard Hills NSW

(If necessary and appropriate and at the discretion of the Club, the trial may be relocated to an alternative venue if one is available)

Open to all Group 5 (Working Group) Dogs and Bitches
MR, LR and SR only

Entries: Online via Show Manager or alternatively contact Trial Manager (information as below) to make other arrangements.

Extreme Weather: 0416 382 138

Enquiries to Trial Manager: 0416 382 138 or lc00k52@hotmail.com

Judges:

Ms Peta Clarke: Excellent Exteriors and Masters Containers and Vehicles

Ms Donna Puttock: Novice Interiors and Exteriors and Advanced Vehicles

Ms Jo Washington-King: Excellent and Advanced Containers

Scents:

Novice – Birch

Advanced – Birch and Clove

Excellent – Birch, Clove and Cypress

Masters – All Odours

Entries will be capped at 80 per judge

Judging Commences: 8.30am

Order of Judging: To be Advised

Dogs NSW Representative: Lynda Brandt

Entry fees: $12.00 per element – Non members

$10.00 per element – Border Collie Club Members

Catalogues: Available free 3 days prior to Trial on the DNSW ANKC Scentwork FB page and the BCCNSW FB page

Area for judging: Please note that carparking will be available at the Northern end of the grounds adjacent to main rings. Exhibitor set up will be available from 7.30am next to designated carpark area but no further than the Rotunda and not in front of Library building. (Ring 14)
Club committee will be available to direct you and assist you on the day.
No odours to be brought onto the ground on the day of the trial.

Prizes: Special Prize for Highest Scoring Border Collie (Members only) overall.

All other Classes: Cash and Sash

Qualifying ribbons will be available on the day.

Refreshments: Not available – Please provide your own on the day

- The club retains the right to change judge/s or venue at anytime should the need arise.
- One dog per element per handler per class

