Please note that there will be capped numbers for both disciplines. However, we will be taking a “wait” list if the numbers are reached.

Whilst we do understand some may want enter both disciplines, please be aware we will not hold up either ring for longer than necessary. We have staggered the starting times to best accommodate our competitors where we can. Please take the time to acquaint yourselves with the rules for Trick Dogs, as listed under Rules and Regulations on the ANKC website, under Members. We will not tolerate any disparaging of judges.

Catering: There will be many outlets available on the main grounds as this is also the Dogs on Show day for Dogs NSW on the main rings.
Camping: Please contact Dogs NSW

Prizes: Cash and Sash for all qualifiers in both disciplines
Special prize for Top Performing Border Collie in each discipline
(As decided by our judges)
