Before competing all dogs must be inspected by the steward. Bitches in oestrus will not be permitted to compete, nor will they be allowed within the precincts of the trial venue. Field Trial venues are specifically obtained by this club, conditions of entry do not permit the return of competitors or others at a later date. Where possible, all trials will be held within a reasonable distance to Melbourne. For starting and assembly point please contact the Manager, the Wednesday preceeding the trial. Shooting of game is not to be shot on any part of the trial venue during any part of the day which the field trial is held except with the approval of the judge while the trial is in progress or the consent of the manager at any other time.

Shooters Licence must be included on all entry forms.
