Dr. Lesley Cameron

I became involved in the dog world somewhat accidentally when I purchased a German Shorthaired Pointer bitch and the breeder suggested I might like to try showing her. Not knowing anything, and with the aid of experienced breeders and exhibitors, the girl got her Champion title and I was hooked. That was about 45 years ago. A number of GSPs followed and my involvement grew. I have subsequently also owned, shown and in some cases bred, Hungarian Vizslas, English Springer Spaniels, Pointers and Dobermanns. I am licensed to judge Toys, Gundogs, Hounds and Utility. I have judged in most states of Australia (WA is missing), in New Zealand where I have judged gundog specialties, and in Ireland where I judged the Pointer Club of Ireland and English Setter Club of Ireland speciality shows.

I have recently returned to Australia after three years overseas so have been inactive in the dog world, only resuming judging early this year. And only having two oldies at home, I am not currently exhibiting. I am thoroughly looking forward to this appointment, and to returning to my 'roots' in the dog world.

Meet Hunter.

Part of our family

Hotondo Homes adopted 'Hunter' our German Shorthaired Pointer back in 2010 alongside the launch of its 'A Great Find' campaign. The idea of the hunting dog in the campaign was intended to creatively symbolise the campaign tagline 'A Great Find'. He was aptly named Hunter as it suits the breed, plus it's a great name!

Originally Hunter was going to be partnered with our brand during the 2010 campaigns, but he soon became part of our family. When builders say they are a Hotondo Homes builder, a common reply is "you're the one with the dog."

Using Hunter alongside the Hotondo Homes branding and marketing also complements and showcases our enduring respect for the use of family values in business.

Hunter has become such a beloved member of the Hotondo Homes family and can now be found at many of our events. Our builders and clients alike have fallen in love with him and some have had to get their very own 'Hunter'; they're the perfect mate to have around.

We have Display Homes and Sales Centres all around Australia.
