PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of the executive and committee of the Border Collie Club of NSW Inc, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to all exhibitors, judges and stewards who will be participating in our Championship show today.

We extend a warm welcome to our judges, Mr Frank Kane, visiting from the UK, who will be judging our Breed Classes and General Specials and Ms Jeneene Ford who will be judging our Property Classes – thank you both for accepting these appointments and we hope that you will enjoy the experience.

Thanks, must also go to our small, dedicated and hard-working committee who continue to provide our club and the breed in general with so many events across so many different disciplines. A big THANKYOU to our Show Secretary Lynne Cook for all you do before and during these show days!

To our sponsors and supporters, particularly our major sponsor Black Hawk, thank you for your ongoing generous support.

Finally, I hope the day will provide us all with the thrill of great competition, the camaraderie of spending time with friends old and new and with our beloved Border Collies.

Our Judges

Breed & General Specials

Judge: Mr Frank Kane
North Yorkshire, England
United Kingdom

Frank Kane began showing dogs as a schoolboy and has been deeply involved in the dog world ever since. While at university, he co-owned and handled champion Sealyham Terriers, later founding his HIRONTOWER kennel with American Cocker Spaniels, producing multiple UK and international champions.

Over the years, he has also worked with breeds including Dachshunds, Afghans, and Great Danes, handling champions across all.

Since awarding his first Challenge Certificates in 1974, Frank has become approved to judge 140 breeds, all groups, and Best in Show in the UK. Internationally, he has judged across Europe, the U.S., Australia, and Asia, including Best in Show at Crufts (2012) and the Sporting Group at Westminster (2023).

A former Kennel Club Board member and Breed Standards Committee Chair, he continues to contribute to breed health and education. He's also a published author, known especially for Judging the Gundog Breeds. Outside the ring, Frank enjoys horses, tennis, and opera.

Special & Property Classes

Judge: Ms Jeneene Ford
New South Wales, Australia

Jeneene Ford grew up in New Zealand with a fear of dogs—something that seems unimaginable now. That all changed in 1981 when she welcomed her first dog into her life and quickly fell in love.

Her journey began with a German Shepherd, who she successfully trained to a Companion Dog (CD) title in Obedience. From there, her passion for dogs only grew.

Over the years, she has shown a wide variety of breeds including German Shepherds, Belgian Shepherds (all varieties), Swedish Vallhunds, Schipperkes, German Spitz (Mittel), Cavalier King Charles Spaniels, Tenterfield Terriers, and Chihuahuas.

Under the Shadownoir prefix, she has bred numerous champions, particularly in Groenendaels and Schipperkes.

In the late 1990s, she decided to take the next step in her canine journey by becoming a judge and obtained her first group license in 2000. Janeene achieved All Breeds Judge status in 2018.

Over the years her love for dogs has remained as strong as ever.
