MEET YOUR JUDGE – DEAN FRESHWATER

I started my dog showing career in 1991 helping a neighbour exhibit her Fox Terriers .

In 1995, I purchased my first Australian Terrier, a breed which i am still heavily involved with today. Apart from the many BIS wins and Royal Group placements, our proudest accomplishments are having the breed record holders in both male and female, for Specialty CC wins, worldwide.

Apart from the Aussies, I have also successfully shown Kerry Blue Terriers, Jack Russell Terriers and Lakeland Terriers , winning many Best in Shows with all these breeds. We have won multiple Royal Best in Groups, and a Best in Show at the Spring fair.

For the last 15 years, I have concentrated on Papillons. We have imported a few dogs from Europe and Japan. Once again, we continue to enjoy success , winning many BIS awards, and Group wins at some of the biggest shows.

I started my judging career at the age of 26. I have judged extensively throughout Australia, Japan and New Zealand. I have lectured in NSW, Tasmania, and Japan.

To me, Specialty shows are the most important shows in the calendar and I thank the Stump Tail Cattle Dog Club for the invitation to officiate at your show.
