CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW JUDGE
YANINA SMITH (TAS)

I have been involved with exhibiting and breeding British Bulldogs in partnership with my mother, Fran Smith, under the Paseya prefix, since 1972. Paseya is the longest and most successful British Bulldog kennel in Tasmania. We are the only Australian breeders to have a Bulldog inducted into American's Bulldog Hall of Fame. We are breeders of multi Best In Show winners and also champions in New Zealand and America. We have also bred Specialty Best In Show and Runner Up in Show winners.

I started showing when I was 7 years old and in 1983 I won Tasmania's Junior Dog Handler of the Year award, which I won again the 1985. I started judging when I was 18 and gained my All Breeds judging licence in 2008. I am an ANKC accredited examiner for 4 groups and am the Tasmanian Training Co-Ordinator for the Non-Sporting Group.

I have judged in most states of Australia, in New Zealand and South Africa. I have officiated at FCI shows and whilst in South Africa I judged the finals of the Junior Dog of the Year. In January 2009 I judged the finals of the Puppy of the Year contest in Western Australia.

I have also been involved with Belgian Shepherd Dogs (Malinois), Boxers, Dalmatians, German Shepherd Dogs and a French Bulldog. I have served on several All Breeds and Specialty Dog Clubs at executive, committee and editorial levels. I also served on the Tasmanian Canine Association disciplinary committee.

I would like to thank the Dalmatian Club of Victoria for the invitation to judge and I am looking forward to seeing your beautiful Dalmatians today. Good luck everyone.

Yanina Smith
