MEET OUR JUDGE

Tracy Hofman

Judges Profile

Introduction

My life prior to 2000 was very much singularly focused on my professional career, my educational uplift (Masters in Human Resource Management) and of course family and friends. What was missing was our own home (rental is never your 'own' place) and a dog. I had grown up with dogs (my first was a Welsh Corgi Pembroke), followed by 2 cross-breeds who I adored and who adored me in return. After I married, we had 3 cats who were much adored.... but they weren't a dog!

The purchase of our first home in January 2000 led immediately to the purchase of our first family dog, a pure-bred Keeshond which was our breed of choice. On weekends we would mosey across to Castle Hill or Erskine Park (as it was called then) so Kaysha could meet her cousins and we could admire many many beautiful Kees. Repeatedly the exhibitors would tell us Kaysha was a lovely girl and would we consider showing her. As we didn't have children nor prospects of a child, we thought "why not". And so the journey began!

From there to here....

For me, early exposure to various breeds, attending dog shows, and owning a competitive dog led to a purchase of another Keeshond. We joined breed specific and other Kennel clubs, worked as Treasurers and Presidents, gained our prefix (NawtiKees), engaged in stewarding and we started our breeding program. That passion was well and truly ignited!!!

We travelled up and down the east coast and across to Melbourne to many shows, however the Condobolin circuit became a true favourite of ours. Condo conjures the fondest of memories largely due to the network of lifelong friends we made, with large tent embassies filled with hounds, toys, non-sporting, gundogs, utility – you get the picture!

Eventually I asked myself ‘what’s next’ with this chosen hobby? I enjoy the discipline of study and learning about breeds, anatomy and deciphering those infuriatingly confusing breed standards. In 2016 I successfully obtained my first judging licence - Group 7. I am now licenced to judge Groups 1, 5, 6 & 7 and am on track to obtain my Group 6 licence. I have judged in all states of Australia (except the NT and interestingly the ACT), and have been honoured to Judge at breed and group specialties.

From here to beyond....

Every group I sign up for teaches me something new, deepens my knowledge of breed type, and emphasises that being a judge means committing to continual learning. I do not profess to be an expert; I listen intently to breed specialists to deepen my knowledge and learn from those who live and breathe their breed. I genuinely enjoy the process of evaluating the dogs and assessing their attributes.

Judging requires strength of character and a strong ethical framework; preparedness to accept and learn from the mistakes that you will inevitably make and importantly love what you do! And I genuinely love my chosen hobby of dog breeding, exhibiting and now judging.

I am now lovingly owned by a Welsh Corgi Pembroke once again, along with our beloved Keeshonds, and as retirement has now become an actuality. I look forward to engaging even more in all things show and DOGS NSW related!
