With deep sadness I share the passing of my beloved mum,
Elizabeth “Beth” Crabb
21.02.1942 – 19.12.2025

Mum’s life was shaped by her love of animals, particularly dogs. Although she always owned pedigree dogs—Boxers and Welsh Corgis—she was not initially a member of Dogs SA. Her lifelong passion truly began in March 1964 when she purchased her first Chihuahua.

Coincidentally, both the Chihuahua and I arrived home on the same day. On the advice of the breeder, Mrs Billie Holland, Mum entered the show ring—and from that moment, the bug was well and truly caught.

Before moving to Victoria, Mum also successfully exhibited purebred Illawarra Shorthorn and Friesian cattle at local and Royal Adelaide Shows for many years.

Over the years Beth owned several breeds, but her one true love was always the Chihuahua. She imported Chihuahuas from England, Canada, and New Zealand and enjoyed considerable success. She began an aspiring judging career but, after moving interstate, made the difficult decision to give it away due to time constraints.

Among her many successes, her most treasured and favourite dogs were Ch Twinley Golden Galliard (Imp UK) “Guy” – BIS & BISS winner and Sup Ch Donecca Firecracker “Crackers” – Multi BIS & Specialty winner.

For several years Mum also owned and bred Smooth Fox Terriers, working with lines from top breeders and achieving great success. Other breeds she owned and loved included Wire Fox Terriers, Australian Terriers, Long Haired Standard Dachshunds, Australian Cattle Dogs, Papillons, and Affenpinschers.

Club life was an important part of Mum’s journey. She was a foundation and later life member of the Chihuahua Club of South Australia, helped establish the Noorat Cluster, was a life member of the Warrnambool & District Kennel Club, a foundation member of the Lady Bay Kennel Club, active in the Horsham and Hamilton Kennel Clubs, and a committee member of the Papillon Club of Victoria.

Mum was a familiar and respected face at dog shows—whether ticket writing in earlier years or later serving as a VCA Representative.

My proudest “mum and dog show” moment was judging the Chihuahua Specialty Show in Victoria a few years ago—the only time Mum ever watched me judge. Expecting the worst, all she said afterward was, “You did a good job.” That meant everything.

Rest peacefully, Mum. Your legacy, knowledge, and love for dogs will live on through so many.

Rosemary Hawkins

GOLDEN OLDIES

AUST. CH REYNOSA CHERRY BLOSSOM - CHERRY BLOSSOM – 8 YEARS 9 MONTHS

Cherry Blossom is an absolute gem. She is a lovable girl who is very sensible and easy to live with. Now in retirement with Pauline and being shown occasionally in neuter classes. She is the daughter of Sup. Ch. Bramver's Cadi (Imp Jap). She was shown sparingly but managed to win a Minor Puppy in Show as well as several classes in Group and easily reached her Australian Championship. Cherry Blossom has been a stalwart to Reynosa as a brood bitch, naturally whelping her four litters and producing several Champion daughters and granddaughters. She now loves living in a lifestyle village with Pauline and loves the social life of living in a retirement village. Everyone's favourite.

GRAND CH. REYNOSA SECRET KISSES - NETTI - AGE: 8 YEARS 10 MONTHS.

Netti is the daughter of Sup. Ch. Ir. Ch. Rydellans Kiss The Girls (Imp Ire). She began her show career with a bang, winning 3 Baby in Show awards at her first 3 shows, following up with 4 Minor in Group and Minor in Show at the next 6 shows. She finished her Australian Champion title at 8 months of age and another Minor in Group on that day.

One Toy Show Runner Up Best in Show, a Chihuahua Club specialty Best in Show, a Chihuahua Club Runner Up Best in Show, two Runner Up Best in Group, one Best in Group, many other Group awards. Netti is now semi-retired and fit and well, enjoying life at the farm. ☑ Aust Ch. Centavo A Norton Blitz -Norton 9 years and 1 month Norton is 9 years old but doesn't act his age. He is a social little dog who loves to go to shows, but we don't get to many these days. He likes going for walks with Jill around the farm and loves chasing rabbits with his mother when he gets a chance. He doesn't catch any but has a lot of fun trying. Best of all, he is Jill's little mate.

GRAND. CH. BEEBOPCHI PRINCESS TUI - AGE: 8

Princess Tui is more than a show dog. She is the product of a beautiful friendship of Sue and Pam who both bred her together. Tui named after a New Zealand bird, was a handful to say the least as a youngster. She has won many Best of Breeds and was rarely beaten as a bitch, including BOB at the Melbourne Royal. She has had only two litters and has produced some lovely puppies. She was our first Grand Champion and will forever be our most loved companion. She may be over the hill so to speak but she knows her place in our lives. Number one princess and daughter to a Queen.

AM/AUST CH GUICHON'S I BLAME HOLLYWOOD (IMP USA) – AGE: 8

“Olly”, “Oliebollen” or “Old Dog” to his friends...our sweet old man came to join his daughter Kitty (Ch Adrahil Shantay You Stay) and the rest of the bed crew here at Ellz in September 2025. Olly did well in the show ring in his day and he has produced some really lovely offspring during his time as a fairly active stud dog. He's pretty much retired now and spends his days collecting “tolls” from the other dogs from his grinch cave under the doona at the foot of the bed. He enjoys pottering about in the back yard and helping to collect the eggs from the family chickens. We love our sweet old man and thank Rick Carter for the opportunity to own him.

CH. CENTAVO A NORTON BLITZ - AGE: 9

Norton at 9 years old doesn't act his age. He is a social little dog who loves to go to shows, but we don't get to many these days. He likes going for walks with Jill around the farm and loves chasing rabbits with his mother when he gets a chance. He doesn't catch any, but has a lot of fun trying. Best of all, he is Jill's little mate.

CH. CENTAVO AUTUMN ANGEL – AGE 14

Angie has always had a mind of her own, and being a show dog wasn't really her thing. She started really well, including a Best Minor Puppy in Show, but after a few shows, about half way to her title, she just wouldn't play the game, so she wasn't shown for 5 years. After she had her one litter, I decided to try again and she got her title but still didn't like showing. Angie preferred climbing out of yards to go rabbiting and guarding the house, giving a few unsuspecting visitors a nip here and there which doesn't make her the most popular Chihuahua, but she is always loving to me.

CH. CHEEKYCHI SWEET TALKER – AGE 12

Hugo was the Slavin's family reintroduction back in to Chihuahuas in 2015. He certainly made them work with 1000+ points. Multiple Royal BOB's Group Placements Best In Specialty Show Winner under Toy Specialist Tom Couchman Runner Up in Show Toy Specialty Winner. Sire of the Chihuahua National Runner Up In Show Winner and Best Neuter in Show winner Hugo retired in 2023 where he won the DCC under Toy Specialist, John Hutchinson. Most of all, he is the King of the kennels and loved immensely by all at Standoff Kennels.
