The story of Sarbi is one of the most remarkable survival tales from the war in Afghanistan.

Sarbi was a black Labrador trained as an explosives detection dog and served with Australian Special Forces in Afghanistan. In September 2008, during a mission in Uruzgan Province, her unit came under heavy Taliban fire. In the chaos of the battle, Sarbi became separated from her handlers.

Despite extensive searches by Australian troops, she was declared missing in action.

For over a year, Sarbi survived alone in a harsh war zone—facing extreme heat, scarce food, and constant danger. No one knew if she was still alive.

Then, in early 2010, an American soldier discovered a dog at a remote base who responded to commands in English. After checking her microchip, they confirmed it was Sarbi.

Sarbi was reunited with Australian forces and eventually brought back to Australia. Her survival stunned military personnel and the public alike.

In recognition of her courage and service, Sarbi was awarded the prestigious RSPCA Purple Cross—an honor given to animals that show exceptional bravery.

Sarbi's story became a symbol of loyalty, resilience, and the unique bond between soldiers and military dogs. Against incredible odds, she survived and made it home—something many called nothing short of a miracle.

Sarbi was an Explosive Detection Dog (EDD) working with Australian Special Forces, specifically the Special Air Service Regiment (SASR).

She was trained to detect improvised explosive devices (IEDs) and other hidden explosives—one of the most dangerous roles in modern warfare.

In memory of Fred Hession

Sadly, on the 26th of September last year, our long serving President and Life Member of the County of Cumberland Kennel Association, Fred Hession, passed away surrounded by his beautiful family.

Frederick Thomas Hession's story started on November 25, 1933, when he was born in Australia to parents Joseph and Irene May Hession. At the age of 21, Fred married the love of his life, Beryl Jean Hession. Fred and Beryl's two beautiful girls, Raelene and Joanne made their perfect family complete. Fred was so very proud of all his children and grandchildren and always boasted about their many wonderful achievements.

Fred and Beryl established the highly successful Goldtreve Golden Retrievers in the 1960s. They bred and exhibited dogs that have won multiple specialty and all breeds in show awards. Showcasing his contributions to the dog breeding community, and a Gundog judge himself, Fred was a long-standing DOGS NSW Board member where his knowledge and experience for the many aspects of our hobby were so greatly valued, in particular his passion for field trials.

Fred and Beryl first joined the County of Cumberland in 1976 with Raelene and Joanne following in 1994.

Fred was elected unopposed to the position of President at the AGM on 19 August 1994 and supported the Club and its members with his usual calm and positive manner. Our club was proud to honour Fred with Life Membership on 30 October 2011 for his ongoing commitment and service to our Club and the dog world in general.

Fred was loved by family and friends alike. He will be missed and always remembered as a true gentleman and stalwart of our dog community.
