President's message

Welcome to the 7th Border Collie Club of South Australia Incorporated Championship Show. This marks the fifth year our club has hosted conformation shows. During this time, we have explored different formats, including holding our events alongside larger shows such as the Winter International and Adelaide Royal, as well as running our own standalone show on the first weekend of May each year. In the lead-up to hosting the Border Collie National, we are pleased to return to our regular format of a single show in May.

We extend our sincere thanks to the Adelaide District Working Dog Club, who work tirelessly to host their shows on the same weekend. Over the years, they have adapted their format to ensure both clubs' events run smoothly together. Looking ahead to next year, we are excited to announce a slight change of schedule, as we will be running our show alongside the Dublin Kennel Club, where we will have the privilege of hosting an international judge.

A tremendous amount of time and effort has been invested by our hardworking committee members to make these events possible. I would like to personally thank each and every one of them. Events like this simply cannot run without the support of the Border Collie community, and we are truly grateful for your continued involvement.

I would also like to warmly welcome our judges for today. Mrs Joyce Sullivan (VIC), of Kennoway Border Collies, joins us as our breed judge. Joyce is not only a highly respected figure in the breed but also one of our valued club patrons. It is an absolute privilege to have her judging today. Her extensive lifetime of experience, including breeding and exhibiting some of the greats, allows her to share invaluable knowledge with the next generation of breeders and exhibitors.

Our property judge today is Mrs Gayle Mercer (SA). Gayle has been involved with German Shepherd Dogs since the age of 14, beginning in obedience and conformation under her family's Alimanda prefix. With her broad experience in working dogs, we are confident she will do an exceptional job in her first Border Collie appointment.

A warm welcome also to our remaining club patrons, Mr John Sullivan (Kennoway) and Mrs Lynn Harrison (Tullacrest). While John will be cheering everyone on from home this year, we are fortunate to have Lynn with us on the grounds, sharing her knowledge and presenting the traditional Patrons Award.

This show would not be financially possible without the generous support of our business and private ribbon sponsors. This year, we are proud to have three business sponsors: On Linda's Easel, Ivory Coat, and Karlas Koats. We warmly welcome Ivory Coat as a new sponsor and sincerely thank Linda and Suzy for their continued support since our very first shows.

Finally, thank you to all exhibitors who have entered today's show. We wish you the very best of luck and hope you enjoy the day. Please join us after the show for drinks and nibbles with our judges, patrons, visitors, and fellow exhibitors.
