JUDGE PROFILE

Anna Courtman (Courtsum Labradors) Western Australia

My love of the Labrador Retriever started as far back as I can remember, Schroeder, our first black male Labrador Retriever (Warrander) was born a month before me. He and I grew up as best buddies. In my late teens and early 20s I dabbled with other breeds, including a beautiful German Shepherd (Alderhaus), Winnie, along with a rescued Afghan Hound and her mate a bitzer but we always had a Labrador as well.

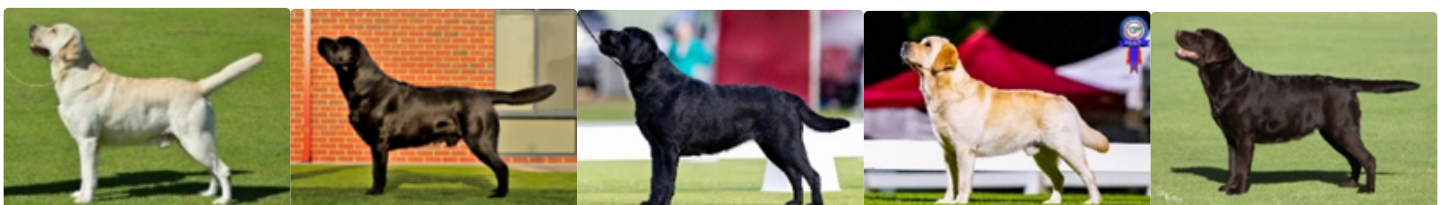

Shortly before Richard and I got married in the early 90s we were asked to look after a 9 month old yellow male Labrador Retriever, Monty (who became RT Ch Moralana Pattons Monty), by my godmother, Peg Malcolm (Warrander) as she had girls and they were in season and Monty was just not coping, being a typical young male. He came and he never left until he died at 13 years old. Monty introduced us to retrieving and it wasn't long before we were completely involved, with Richard taking Monty to his Retrieving Trial Championship title and Richard became a Retrieving Trial Judge. I also competed at the lower levels with a home bred girl, Traffic.

Through retrieving we met a number of great people including Mike and Glen McClure and Tony and Julie Cartwright of Blackboy Kennels (as it was at that time). Glen and Julie encouraged me to get a black girl and to try conformation showing, I was hooked and titling my girl (Ch Blackboy Etched in Ebony) was the best feeling. She left us way too soon dying from mast cell cancer. Since then I have been privileged to breed, own and show many beautiful Labrador Retrievers. We got our prefix, Courtsum, and our first litter was born in 1996, what a learning experience that was, we had to handrear 10 puppies!

Of course, during the years I have been involved with Labradors my sense of what makes a good Labrador has changed and matured and continues to do so. I have bred, owned, exhibited and titled all three colours, below are some of those dogs.

It took time but I decided to enter the Judges Training Scheme and passed my practical for group 3 in November 2022, since then I have added Groups 7 and 4 and am a trainee for Groups 2 and 5.

I look forward to meeting and judging many beautiful dogs at the Labrador Retriever Club of Victoria Championship Show and thank the Club for their very kind invitation.
