Endurance Test

Saturday 9th May 2026

Judges: Michael Stuart (VIC)
VCA Rep: Christopher Collins

Thank you for entering the Hungarian Vizsla Club of Victoria's Annual Endurance Test.

We hope that all competitors enjoy their day. For the comfort and convenience of exhibitors, we have arranged a complimentary BBQ for our competitors and helpers.

Thank you to Dr Trung Luu at Monash Veterinary Clinic for donating his time today to assist us with vetting our participants, Scott Beavan for Pace Setting, Craig Wills for marshaling and Christopher Collins for being our VCA Rep.

Thank you to our judge, Michael Stuart (VIC) for judging our trial today - we hope you enjoy your appointment.

Check in will be at the playground, with presentations taking place there at the completion of the trial. Please present your vet forms at check in. After your dog has been vetted, you will complete your willingness test at 8AM prior to commencing the ride at 8:15 and at the conclusion of the ride.

All exhibits must be vetted.

The trial will be broken up into 3 legs - 8km (15 min break), 6km (20 min break), 6km (15 min break).

All successful exhibits who complete the Endurance Test will be presented with a qualifying certificate to submit to the VCA for their Endurance Test title, and a sash commemorating their result.

At the completion of presentation of awards, participants are requested to present for a group photograph. Photos will be published on the club's Facebook page and printed in the club newsletter.

Our helpers are here to answer any questions and we hope you have fun today!
