We welcome our Veterans

“Jazzi”

Amblebrook Miss Is It

27/11/2017

Jazzi, our beloved Landseer, is turning 9 this November, and our hearts swell with joy and gratitude for the years we've shared with her. She fills our home with love, alongside Maxi, our gentle Bernese Mountain Dog, and Lainey, our spirited Newfoundland puppy.

Jazzi is the embodiment of tranquillity, her serene presence and endearing snores a constant source of comfort. Her boundless affection for people, especially children, is a testament to her gentle soul. She showers us with kisses and the warmest Newfie cuddles, making every day brighter.

At work, Jazzi is more than just a companion; she's a cherished member of our team. She confidently strides into board meetings, her presence a delightful reminder of the simple joys in life. Her unwavering support for Maxi during his show ring adventures, cheering him on from the sidelines, speaks volumes of her loving nature.

Jazzi has an incredible knack for stress relief. Her calm demeanour and affectionate nature have a magical way of melting away the worries of the day. Whether it's her gentle nuzzles or just her being there, she brings a sense of peace and happiness that is truly priceless.

Our beautiful black and white Landseer, affectionately known as our "cow girl," recently got a stylish new look with a fresh clip and a charming bobble head. We adore her to bits and are endlessly grateful for the joy, love, and laughter she brings into our lives every single day. 😊

Long live Jazzi girl

‘Onyx’
Neuter Grand CH Capebass The Coming Storm (AI)
7/3/2018

Onyx has been the sweetest kindest soul ever since we brought him home all those years ago, he was the first puppy Chris and I raised together and what an absolute brat he was.

He landscaped our back yard multiple times to his liking, decided the trailer light plug needed replacing so he removed it for us.

The leather couch... well that looked better with the hole in the back.

But through all the naughtiness we had an absolute cracker of a dog. Onyx started out life with pano and continued to just a list of ailments as long as your arm over the years but he never let it affect him and what feels like 4 terminal diagnoses later he's still here!

After being desexed he entered the ring as a neuter, not that he thought he should be doing anything but getting cuddles, he had an amazing career and he loved every second of being out there.

We are so proud that he's made it to the Veteran age after being told to not expect him to make it to 5. We treasure every moment with him and hope for many more.

'Maple'
Ch Newfashion The Love Bomb
2/11/2018

Maple our beautiful 7-year-old girl, now retired from the show ring she's embraced a more relaxed life, trading ribbons for muddy paws. She thrives on scentwork and bush walks. True to her breed, she absolutely adores the water—whether it's a lake, river, or beach, she'll be the first one in for a swim. Camping trips are her favourite, where she can stay close to us, stretch out under the open sky, and enjoy the simple life.

'Hank'
Ch Apalie Unlock your dreams
7/1/2019

From the moment Hank came into my life I felt a connection that is hard to put into words.

He is my big, goofy, strong-willed, water-loving, smooshy boy, full of personality and charm, and he brings a sense of joy and completeness to my life. While he did earn his title, the show ring was never really where he felt most at home—his true happiness has always been in the water. It is where his personality really shines. Since he was just six months old, he has been swimming every week, building confidence, strength, and pure joy with every splash. Whether it is in our pool at home or anywhere he gets the chance, he never hesitates—he's in, tail wagging, completely in his element. He is also taken on his role as "lifeguard" very seriously. Any time someone steps into the water, Hank is right there, watchful and ready, as if it's his personal responsibility to keep everyone safe. It's equal parts endearing and amusing, and so perfectly him—loyal, intuitive, and always wanting to be involved.

A huge thank you to Melissa from Apalie Newfoundlands for entrusting this incredible boy to me. Hank is more than just my dog—he's a constant companion, a source of comfort, and a huge part of my everyday life. He's woven himself into every moment, every routine, and every memory. He isn't just part of my story—he's a piece of my past, my present, and my whole heart.

'Tommy'
Ch Capebass Heart of the Ocean at Searose
15/1/2019

Tommy has been such a treasure to live with for the past 7 years after coming home as my pick out of Scarlett's last litter he has been a constant companion since then. He grew up alongside his mum and has grown into such an amazing dog to live with. He has enjoyed being shown, travelling to our summer holidays and being just the best family dog for us.

‘Carter’
A2O Ch C.I.B Aus Sup Ch Capebass Nothing Compares to U
24/5/2019

One of the two boys we kept from their litter, Carter has certainly left his mark on us, while he is a bit of a quirky dog that will pick pieces out of his food so he can eat them in his order and has to do things in his routine, we wouldn't change him for the world. He is so sweet, always up for a cuddle and still thinks he is a lap dog. His show career was outstanding with many fantastic wins at all breeds and specialty level, he was awarded his Supreme Title, International title and A2O ch title along the way. Now mostly retired after a broken toe he enjoys coming out for a spin around the ring every now and enjoys his time at home being an older gentleman with his brother.

'Truman'
Ch Capebass You Got the Look
24/5/2019

Truman is one of our 2 boys that we kept from the litter, being a landseer he stood out from day one. He is the kindest, sweetest boy with a face that just melts your heart. While he was successful in the show ring, he has thrived being a cuddle buddy and a brilliant expo dog, nothing ever phases him and he will always be up for a cuddle, with just the most outstanding temperament he is happily enjoying retirement being a cuddly old man with his brother.

'Dior'
Ch Capebass Sign of the Times
30/5/2019

Dior was the only girl from 2 litters we had within 4 days of each other, she certainly never let that worry her, bossing all the boys around from day dot. She was a great show girl when she wanted to be titling easily after some casual covid lockdowns, she has also been a fabulous mother to her 2 beautiful litters and now lives her life of retirement bossing all our boys around.
