Margaret Bennett Memorial Show

JUDGE COURTNEY BUTLER

Courtney began her journey in the world of dogs in 1999 and has been actively and successfully breeding and exhibiting Border Collies for over 25 years. Her passion for the sport started at a young age in Junior Showmanship, where she achieved early success and developed a strong foundation in ring craft, sportsmanship, and skilled handling.

Once eligible to compete in the conformation ring, Courtney's enthusiasm for dog showing flourished. She went on to consistently handle a wide variety of breeds within the Working Dog Group, gaining valuable experience and recognition.

Her first dog, originally purchased as a family pet, exceeded all expectations by becoming a multi Best in Show winning Australian Grand Champion and set in motion her love for all things Border Collie. Since then, she has successfully campaigned dogs to Australian Supreme Champion, Australian Grand Champion, and Australian Champion titles. Courtney's dogs have been awarded consistently at the highest levels of competition, including Best in Show All Breeds, Best in Show Semi-Specialty, and Best in Show Specialty wins. Many of these dogs now feature prominently in both local and international Border Collie pedigrees.

Courtney breeds under the Macnallem prefix, with strong foundations and connections to Monochrome, Tullaview, and Tehya Kennels. Her breeding program is successfully represented in conformation rings throughout Australia and overseas, while also producing accomplished dogs in agility, obedience, herding, and flyball.

Her move to being a dog judge was a natural progression for Courtney and is a role that brings her great enjoyment. She looks forward to completing her Gundog licence shortly and then moving on to learning more about the many wonderful breeds across the remaining 5 groups.

Valerie Dickens Memorial Show

JUDGE – PAM DOUGLAS

I started showing Pembroke Welsh Corgi in the 1960's. In this breed I had the privilege of breeding and showing BIS (All Breeds & Speciality) winners.

In 1983 I imported my first Bearded Collie, who was bred from two English imports, and there my passion lies to this day. Many imports later in flesh and frozen semen, which allowed me to diversify my lines. We have only an extremely small pool here now, unfortunately. Now I have added a smaller breed to our household as well.

In NZ & Australia I have bred in excess of 110 Champions, multiple Best In Show winners both in the All Breed ring and Specialist rings. Have added Grand Champion prefixes to some names, and here in NZ one needs to have 50 CC's and Three Best In Show All Breeds under three different judges, to be awarded that title.

Since I started judging in 1988, I have gained my All Breeds License and judged in excess of 17000 dogs in 14 Countries at Championship Show level, including:
Australia, USA, Canada, South Africa, Chile, Thailand, Ireland, Mexico, Scotland, Hungary, China, Philippines, Finland & the UK.

I have judged many Specialities, and I certainly look forward to judging your show again.

Thank you to the committee for inviting me back.

Pam Douglas
