CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW JUDGE
MS AMANDA MAYNARD (QLD)

I was born into the show world and am proud to be a third-generation exhibitor, raised in a family where Royal and Specialty Show dates were checked before booking weddings.

Although my early years in dogs were spent with other breeds and groups, my involvement with Dalmatians began when my younger sister was searching for a reliable junior handler dog. Paul and Tam of Winterfalls generously offered their support, and what began as a breeder-exhibitor relationship soon developed into a lifelong friendship. Over the years, that friendship has grown into family.

As my sister's interests gradually moved beyond the show ring, I found myself taking "her" Dalmatian to more and more shows. Before long, I was completely hooked. The breed's unique combination of beauty, athleticism, intelligence and unmistakable sense of humour quickly won me over. Dalmatians became a passion and arguably, an obsession.

For many years I have been privileged to work alongside Winterfalls, helping campaign numerous Champions, Supreme Champions and multiple Best in Show winners. Through specialties, Royal shows, interstate campaigns and countless weekends on the road in North Queensland, I have developed a deep appreciation for both the breed and the wonderful people involved in it. One thing is certain, I will always have a Dalmatian on the bed and the couch.

Today, Dalmatians are a significant part of my life and the main breed that I show week in and week out, and I am incredibly grateful for the opportunities, experiences and friendships the breed has provided.

It is a great honour to be invited to judge this Specialty Show. There is always something particularly distinct about a specialty, and I feel privileged to be entrusted with this appointment and it is an honour I hope to do justice.

I sincerely thank the committee for their invitation and look forward to judging what I am sure will be a wonderful exhibition of our beautiful breed.
