Judges Information

All classes, Championship show - Mr Mats Lindborg.

From the judge:

"I have been into dogs since I was a little boy. My first dog was a German Shepherd, a breed I also bred for about ten years.

In 1977 cairn terriers came into my life, so as of next year I will have been breeding them for 50 years, under the RASKENS kennel prefix. RASKENS has produced 136 champions and finished 15 champions from other breeders.

I am authorised as a judge at an international level since 1995, currently the FCI terrier group and most of the breeds in group 1 and several breeds in group 2. I have judged in all the Nordic countries and in Germany, England, Wales, Ireland, Northern Ireland, Italy, Switzerland, Tjeckia, Russia, the Netherlands, Belgium, Canada and Australia.

Some RASKENS cairns of note include:

Multi Ch Rasken's Robert De Niro. Cairn of the year in Sweden 1994 and in Denmark 1995.

Multi Ch Rasken's Riding Pawnee. The first Swedish bred and owned cairn to become UK Ch.

Ch Rasken's Rusty Red Ruby. The first non-British cairn to win Best of Breed at Crufts (2002).

UK SE FI CH Rasken's Romping Playboy. The first Swedish cairn to be a UK Champion.

Multi Ch Rasken's Royal Trade Mark. Cairn of the year in Sweden in 2005.

Property classes - Mrs Jenna Moorby is a Hound group judge currently studying the Terrier Group in NSW. Jenna is a breeder and exhibitor of Whippets under the Beaurioi prefix.

The Annette Melia memorial Best Puppy In Show award – 2026

Annette fell in love with cairn terriers via a friend of hers in Canberra who had an Emeraldcity cairn. As soon as I met Annette I loved her enthusiasm for dogs, her instant love of cairns, her bubbly personality and her incredible kindness.

She sought a girl from me and Emeraldcity Dame Judi Dench (Judi) went to live with the Melia's in Canberra. Annette wanted to learn all about the breed, the Club, showing and dog sports. A male cairn soon followed - Ch Emeraldcity Patrick Cummins (Paddy) that Annette showed to his Australian champion title.

Annette participated in conformation showing and agility sports, and started a cairn walking group in Canberra. The group met every Sunday at the Lindsay Pryor Arboretum, with a pack of cairns mostly offlead walking the area and some enjoying a swim in Lake Burley Griffin. All the cairns knew that Annette was the one with treats, and balls, and knew all their names and always had plenty of pats for each of them.

Annette commenced her own kennel in ACT in 2022 – BraeRose. The Brae is Scottish for hillside and the Rose reference is for the White Rose of York, the traditional emblem of Yorkshire where Annette was originally from. Annette raised two lovely litters before she was taken by cancer. A wonderful lady who is terribly missed by her family and friends, and a great loss to the breed also.

Emeraldcity has donated the Best Puppy In Show award in her honour, the award was chosen as she loved her puppies soooo much!
