General Information

19th National Specialty
SPRINGTIME
Victoria • 2022

Catering

Outside catering will not be available on these days but a hospitality table will be available for exhibitors through both days.

Thursday Night Spit Roast

The spit roast will be available late afternoon after the conclusion of judging for the day. Bookings will be checked off as you arrive for your spit roast.

Presentation of Trophies and Awards & Silent Auction

Presentations will be shortly after the completion of Show Specials and before the Dinner on Friday evening. Throughout Thursday & Friday, the Club will be holding a silent auction. There are some lovely corgi items for you to bid for. Final bids will be at 3.00pm on Friday and collection with payment will be after the presentation of trophies.

Friday Dinner

On Friday evening after the presentation and time to care for dogs, the dinner will be held. Bookings will be checked as you arrive at the dinner.

Photographer

The photographer for the show is Ingrid Matschke. Ingrid will be present at the show on Thursday and Friday to take photographs and a stand will be available if desired.

National Show Merchandise

There will be a stall with National Show clothing available. For those exhibitors who have preordered and paid for vests, polo tops, coats and hoodies, your items can be collected at the stall from Thursday morning. You will have the opportunity to order additional clothing if desired, to be delivered after the Show.

JUDGES

BARBARA DU PREE - CURIG PEMBROKE CORGIS

Barbara has loved all animals all her life. Her love for Pembroke Welsh Corgis started when her parents moved to a farm near Ottawa, Canada in 1972, where they bought their first corgi and fell in love with his incredible intelligence, beauty and natural herding instinct. Barbara and her mother, the late Bernice Beilby had their first litter in 1974 and the rest is history. They, along with her daughter Juliana, and Sue Neave, have accumulated over 19 Best In specialty wins with 10 different dogs and have ranked in the top 10 corgis in Canada almost every year since. They have also participated in herding, obedience, Rally and Barn Hunt.

Barbara retired from the Canadian Food Inspection Agency in 2009 and is now able to spend all her time (and money) on her corgis. She has gone on to obtain her Canadian Kennel Club judging License completing the Herding Group in 2011 so has seen many Cardigans over the years as well as being mentored in the US with an entry of 80 Cardis. What a thrill! Her passion is judging and showing. She has judged many Pembroke sweepstakes over the years as well as an Open Show in England and in the U.S., the Potomac, Palmetto, Ohio Valley and PWCCA National specialties. Many Herding group assignments have followed. Her greatest joy is having the privilege to meet many other corgi enthusiasts and forge lasting friendships. She is a member of the Canadian Kennel Club, The Pembroke Welsh Corgi Association of Canada, The Great Lakes Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club and the Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of America.

Barbara and her husband George live on 2 acres that has been severed from the same 50 acres of beautiful property that her parents owned. They are now living in their 'retirement' home. Barbara is excited to have the prospect of visiting Australia for the first time and seeing some beautiful dogs!

RUSSELL ALLEN – WESTMORLAND PEMBROKE CORGIS

Russell acquired his first Pembroke in 2003. He is a member of the Greater Houston Pembroke Welsh Corgi Fanciers (GHPWCF), the Golden Gate Pembroke Welsh Corgi Fanciers (GGPWCF) and the Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club of America (PWCCA). He has served on the Boards of both GHPWCF and PWCCA in various roles. Russell has judged Sweepstakes for the National Specialty in Kingston Ontario, Canada, several U.S. regional specialties and numerous all breed sweepstakes entries and matches. He has been fortunate to have bred, owned and handled Pembrokes over the past 19 years. Russell thanks you and looks forward to the opportunity to judge our National Specialty Sweepstakes classes.

KAREN HEWITT - CARDHEW CARDIGAN WELSH CORGIS

Thank you for your invitation, I consider it a huge honour to judge in Australia. I have judged Cardigan Corgis for in excess of 25 years. I have awarded CCs in the breed seven times including the CWCA breed Championship Show (our speciality) and Crufts, I considered this a huge honour. I have judged the breed at six of our breed club shows. I have judged Cardigan Corgis at championship level in Denmark, (three times), Russia, (twice) and the Republic of Ireland. I have judged more than 800 Cardigans over the years.

In Pembroke Corgis, I have awarded CCs three times in the UK and also at Championship level in Finland, Denmark and the Republic of Ireland and two Breed club shows; in all I have judged approximately 450 Pembrokes. I have also judged a number of both breeds at Open shows in Denmark.

I also do judges' education for Cardigan Corgis, I am responsible for producing an educational booklet, used in our seminar and assessments, and regularly deliver talks at such events and mentor and assess up and coming judges. I have served as Chair of our national breed club for eight years and before that I was the club secretary for five years and I have been responsible for creating the recent Cardigan Welsh Corgi Association Handbooks.

OUR THANKS TO THESE SUPPLIERS FOR THEIR SUPPORT FOR OUR SHOW

BREEDER OF BEST IN SHOW - The "THELMA GRAY' Memorial
Green and Gold Sash plus $100.00 cash award
Donated by Diane Baillie and Ray Barwick

Thelma Gray's world renowned "Rozavel" prefix was first registered with the English Kennel Club in 1928. One of the pioneers in the formative years of development of the Welsh Corgi, and throughout her life as breeder, exhibitor, author and judge, it is no doubt that Royal Patronage of those early mahogany red "Rozavel" Pembrokes did much to popularize the breed both at home and worldwide. All the Royal Corgis can trace their lineage back to those early Pembrokes as indeed most of our Australian Pembrokes would find Thelma's famous Stud and Show Dog, Ch Rozavel Red Dragon in the roots of their lineage.

A judge of world renown (including Crufts 5 times) she also successfully bred and exhibited 'Alsations', Chihuahuas, Beagles and West Highland White Terriers as well as Cardigan Welsh Corgis, her dedication and resolve leading to the recovery of the unique blue merle colouring in Cardis that had been virtually 'lost' to the breed through the advent of the war years.

When Thelma migrated to Australia in 1975 with her son Jeremy, she brought only 2 dogs , both Pembrokes, Windsor Loyal Subject (bred by HM The Queen) and his son, later Aust Ch Rozavel Roderick. Thelma herself remained a personal friend of The Queen until her death in 1984.

The inaugural Thelma Gray Trophy was donated by Thelma's son Jeremy at the First National Welsh Corgi Championship Show in 1985. Subsequently this award has been presented by Diane Baillie and Ray Barwick to acknowledge her great contribution to the development of the "Little Red Dog" from the Welsh Hills to the breed as we know it today..... the colours of the sash "Green and Gold", the colours of Australia, as requested by Thelma's son.
