JUDGE'S PROFILE

My initiation into the pure-bred dog world started in the early years of my childhood with my father and the Afghan hound which gave me a terrific insight into showing, breeding and also the opportunity to get my hands on many dogs that were instrumental in paving the way for their breed. I then decided to try my hand at another breed I admired, though with less grooming, and added the Staffordshire Terrier to my life.

After a short break due to work/life I was drawn back to pure bred dogs and was given a great opportunity to continue my journey in the hound ring through the world of Rhodesian Ridgebacks, starting with a beautiful bitch I titled to GR CH Ridgesetter How Easy It Is and shortly after I met my partner which also added the Rottweiler to our expanding family.

Breeding under the Juzrival prefix we have been blessed with success from every litter produced and maybe more importantly have produced puppies that have made beautiful companions for their families.

My interest in dogs has always gone beyond showing and I've been actively involved in clubs, PR days and Rescue Rehoming. It has always seemed natural to want to widen my experience while trying to give back to something that is a big part of my life so judging is hopefully the next chapter I can add to my book.

I'd like to thank everyone, organisers and exhibitors, for the opportunity to judge the Southern Region Hound Club of NSW show to help me on my journey.

Addam Barter
