Mr Charles Kerfoot (WA)

Growing up on a farm in England, I was involved with working Gundogs from an early age.

My wife Mary and I have bred, shown and worked Cocker Spaniels in South Africa since the early seventies, before moving to Western Australia.

I've served as Chairman and Committee member of the Transvaal Cocker Spaniel Club and the Vice Chair for an All-Breeds Kennel Club. I have also been involved with Field Trials and on the panel for all Gundogs.

Mr Adrian Jones (TAS)

With my wife Maureen I commenced showing an Amercian Cocker Spaniel in 1978. In 1980 a tri-coloured Cocker Spaniel joined our family and we have shown both breeds successfully since.

We have bred both breeds under the "Rushboro" prefix which was established in 1987 and after selling a Cocker Spaniel to the Job family we formed the partnership "Doulton" kennels which still continues to this day.

We show consistently and have won multi Best in Show awards throughout Australia and New Zealand and have had major successes at both Speciality and Royal Shows over many years under both local, international and breed specialist judges.

At Tasmania's own prestigious Night of Champions we have won three times and Runner-up once with four different dogs and we have also represented Tasmania at the Australian Dog of the Year Award.

We have imported dogs from Argentina, the United Kingdom and New Zealand with our guiding principle being only to breed when we want something to show and use whichever sire or dam that will perpetuate correct breed type.

I commenced judging in 1988 and became an All Breeds Judge in 2003. I was the founding President of the Gundog Club of Tasmania and have been Chairman of the Tasmanian Canine Association's Judges Training Committee in the past and I am an accredited assessor. I apply the same principles to judging as I apply to breeding – a better type must be paramount and correct type is the ultimate aim of the judge's decision.

I have judged in all States of Australia, both islands of New Zealand many times and have also judged in the Philippines, Thailand, India, Pakistan and in China. I have judged at Darwin Royal and at a CACIB show in Australia. I enjoy judging, particularly in new places and increasing my knowledge of the many and varied breeds in the world of pure bred dogs and I am currently a Custodian of the Dogs Tasmania Library.

I am honoured to receive your invitation to judge another speciality show in my own breed as well as judging at the
