KEN PIERCE MEMORIAL

PUPPY SWEEPSTAKES

The Ken Pierce Memorial Puppy Sweepstakes is held each year to honour Ken's contribution to the dog world, and in particular to the Colac Kennel Clubs. Ken formed the original Kennel Club in Colac, known then as the Colac 5 & 6 Club, whilst living at Barongarook in the early 1960s. He owned a British Bulldog, showed Samoyeds, and he and his young son had a Keeshond. Of course, in those days, there were only 6 groups, Non Sporting had not yet been developed.

Ken gained his All Breeds Judging Licence, which he achieved in 6 years, and judged extensively both in Australia and overseas. Ken and his wife Betty showed their beloved Chow Chows with much success. In later years Pomeranians became their choice of dog to show. Ken worked tirelessly in many capacities over the 50 plus years he was involved with dogs and maintained his interest always.

Ken was well respected by all who knew him.

Each year the Sweepstakes winning dog has its name engraved onto a Shield, which was provided in his memory by his good friends, including John and Helen Osborne and Ron & Lorraine Bell. The shield is held by the Club, and the winning dog is presented with a Sash and Cash.

We are delighted to have Club Life Member Mr. John Osborne, a lifelong friend of Ken, to present the Shield.
