JUDGING RESUME

I have for the past 53 years exhibited and bred Basset Hounds under my Wenbrook prefix. At the time I acquired my first Basset Hound in 1969 from Mrs Hazel O'Hehir, and the late Bill O'Hehir of Lyndhaze fame, I was also introduced to British Bulldogs, and since that time, I have enjoyed a long association with British Bulldogs including regularly handling the O'Hehir's British Bulldogs at shows.

It was through my association with Bill and Hazel O'Hehir that I developed a love and appreciation of British Bulldogs. I was privileged to be mentored on the breed by not only Hazel and the Late Bill O'Hehir, but also well respected breeders and judges of the ilk of Jim Nuttall, Wes Stacey, Norm Haslam, Joe Heatley, Ron Bell, just to mention a couple of true Bulldoggers who never ceased to tire of discussing all things Bulldog! My involvement with British Bulldogs, led me to take on the role of Club Secretary and Show Manager which positions I held for over a decade from approximately 1985 to 1997/98. During this era, I was proud to be actively involved in organizing both the British Bulldog Club of Victoria Inc' 75th Diamond Anniversary Championship Show in 1986, and the highly successful 3rd National hosted by the Club in 1991. I am a life member of both the Basset Hound Club of Victoria Inc and the British Bulldog Club of Victoria Inc, which honour I hold dearly.

I am licensed to judge the Hound Group, Non-Sporting and Gundog Groups, and regularly judge these groups at both major metropolitan and country fixtures in not only Victoria, but interstate. I have also had the honour of judging several breed specialty shows for both Basset Hounds and British Bulldogs in Australia, and also in New Zealand and California, USA. I am also active in Victorian Aspiring Judges Scheme, and continue to actively mentor and support trainee judges.

I am honoured and thank you for your invitation to judge your show today.
