President's Welcome

Once again it is Spring and, yet again wonderful to welcome all exhibitors who have chosen to participate in this, the Whippet Association of Victoria's 35th annual Championship Shows. That I do so again is testament to the drive and hard work of the executive and committee of the association who provide the energy and support to enable the shows to happen.

I am sure everyone will join me in welcoming the judges for our shows - on Friday Mr Christophe Coppel (France) of Dixmoor Whippets then on Saturday Mrs Collette Perkins (UK) of Silkridge Whippets. She will be joined by Mrs Anna Lane of Etosha Ridgebacks who will judge the Special classes.

Again, the club would like to invite all exhibitors and their friends to share in a buffet lunch on both days which is the Clubs collective way of thanking all for taking the time and effort to participate in the shows.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our major sponsor Black Hawk, all trophy donors and contributors as well as those stalwart volunteers who help on the days. Without any of you the days would not be possible in any but a minority format.

We request that exhibitors and helpers do not intrude into the judging ring to take photographs. The club has an official photographer and all photos will be available for purchase soon after the show.

Finally I wish everyone a successful and pleasant time, please enjoy the lunch, the day and the camaraderie and for those travelling, stay safe and we hope to see you again next year.

Iлона Miklosvary
President

BlackHawk[®]

A warm welcome to our judge

Mr Christophe Coppel (France) 'Dixmoor Whippets'

My parents bought our first whippet in 1979 when I was a child. My mother showed that bitch with good results. She also brought her on racing tracks and she built a hard reputation also in this specialty. I follow my mother and at every show and racing. So, I was "intoxicated" very early! I have to wait till the end of my studies to have my own whippets.

In 1988, DIXMOOR kennels were born and I bought my first whippet; "Dis Merci A La Dam due Sac a Malices" (Wicca) a daughter of the very famous Eng. Ch Nevedith Paperweight. She won a lot and became multi champion very quickly. I bred her several times. From her first litter (by of Novacraft Emperor), I kept Dixmoor Give Me The Moon". She gained a lot of champion titles and was probably one of the famous whippets in France in the 90's. Wicca was also bred to my English import Ch Savilepark Scoundrel but probably the most gorgeous litter she had was the one by Multi Ch Nevedith X-Ray (who was already exported to Finland).

I kept a bitch called "Dixmoor Light O' The Moon" (Chrissie) who was for my taste, the archetype of what a bitch must be. She was top bitch several times and among her big wins. I specially remember two of her greatest wins at the big annual National Specialty in France in 2000 and Brussels dog show! Her litter brother, Dixmoor Love Story, after some wins in France produced 2 litters (from I kept multi Ch Dixmoor Never Say Never Again) was exported to Finland. Unfortunately after a sad accident, his show career stopped. Then I bred Chrissie to Multi Ch Boxing Helena XLNT Man. What a gorgeous litter it was! "Dixmoor Top of the Pops" (M'Bo) went to Belgium at Boxing Helena's kennels. I think he was the most titled whippet I ever bred with 7 titles! I kept his litter sister "Dixmoor The Killing Moon" who did a very successful show career. My best memory with her was in 2003 when she was Best In Show at the big annual National Specialty 2003! This was a fantastic year because of this win and her Belgium litter brother got CAC-CACIB-BOB at the French Championship show!

Over the years, I have been very interested in other breeds too and I became an active member of the French Greyhound Club. At the moment I am the Vice President of the French Whippet Club for many years.

In 2003 I have been approved to judge at Championship level and now am qualified for the following breeds:- Whippets, Greyhounds, Borzoi, Irish Wolfhounds, Scottish Deerhounds, Afghan Hounds, Salukis, Italian Greyhounds, Magyar Agars, Chats Polski, Azawakhs, Sloughis and Spanish Galgo (all Group 10). Poodles and Chines Crested dogs (in Group 9), Podencos Ibicencos, Podencos Canarios, Podengoes Portuguese, Cirnecos dell'Etna, Pharaoh Hounds, Siberian Huskies, American Akitas and Alaskan Malamutes (in Group 5), Scottish Terriers, West Highland White terriers, Cairn Terriers, Dandie Dinmont Terriers, Skye Terriers and Fox Terriers (in Group3).

I have judged in France of course but also Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands, Germany, Ireland, England, Bahrein, Hungary, Czech Republic, Austria, Poland, USA and Australia (Sydney, 2011).

I had the great honour to judge whippets at the World Dog Show in Paris 2011 and at the world Dog Show in Milan in 2015.
