The Curly Coated Retriever Association of Victoria Committee welcomes all of our exhibitors to the 2023 CCRAV Championship Show.

The Curly Coated Retriever Association of Victoria is now the only remaining breed club in Australia for our breed, and we appreciate the support from all exhibitors who have entered this show. The future of our Specialty show lies in the hands of our breed community, and we hope to celebrate the excellent standard of Australian curlies for many years to come.

Without our sponsors we would not be able to put together such an array of trophies, rosettes and sashes. We truly appreciate the generosity of the breeders and members who have contributed financially and/or through the investment of personal time to create a successful show.

A Special Thank you to:

- Sharon Slater for donating, sourcing and creating trophies
- Curlbrook Kennels for donating $50 in memory of Curlbrook Th BeatGoesOn ("Teddy")
- The CCRAV Shop for sponsoring trophy prizes

With the Curly Coated Retriever being listed on the vulnerable breed list in the UK and in Australia, the CCRAV have real concerns about the future survival of our beautiful breed.

We have seen some significant changes within our breed, with a decline of CCRs in the Show Ring and Dog Sports arenas. The majority of the breed in Australia are doing what they do best - living with and loving their families as companion dogs.

Promotional activities, such as the Dog Lovers Show, Royal Shows, CCRAV Fun Days and Curly Walks allow us to introduce the Curly Coated Retriever to the public and offer education and support to potential, new and experienced owners. The volunteer breeders and owners who attend these events continue to do a great job of showcasing the unique attributes of our breed - people just love to cuddle and be cuddled by a curly.

Breed enquiries often follow from these promotions and are centred around health, temperament and suitability for purpose, with the public being far more informed on dog ownership over recent years.

The CCRAV is currently the only Curly Coated Retriever Club in Australia and is run by volunteers. It has a long history, being formed in 1976 with the well known and respected CCR Breeder and enthusiast Viki Knowles as its founder. Our club has a long and proud history of commitment to the breed and relies on the willingness of our community to be involved to ensure our breed objectives are met. The history of our club goes hand in hand with that of the CCR in Australia.

All CCR breeders and curly devotees have a very real responsibility to ensure that the future is viable. With this in mind I urge all breeders to take up the Curly Coated Retriever Association of Victoria free 12 month membership for all new puppy owners. The CCRAV provides a rescue service Australia wide; interstate members have a reduced rate and receive newsletters and the club is a source of advice or assistance. As breeders we are the guardians of the breed so please let's all work together to protect and preserve the Curly Coated Retriever in Australia.
