President's Message

Welcome to our 2024 Easter Speciality Shows, I hope that everyone has a wonderful time showing their dogs, catching up with old friends and perhaps making new ones.

Welcome to our Judges: Mr Jira Sattapunkeeree (Thailand) & Ms Liz Rosbach (USA), both judges have a long association with the breed, their kennels names being Bolero Beagles and Manahound/Manabay Beagles. I hope that they enjoy their judging assignment in Sydney as they look for their Best In Show Beagle for our 2024 shows. We also welcome Ms Nina Estatheo (NSW) and Tammy Stephens (NSW) who will judge our Property Classes this year. Welcome and thank you to our stewards – Nellie Abela and Eric Temlett and our Dogs NSW Representative, Sue Temlett. I hope that you all have an enjoyable day.

Our club is very fortunate to have a small but hard-working committee that fronts up each year to run our championship shows, these shows would not go ahead without them. This year Joshua and Mellissa Grant have taken on the big task of organising the trophies, prizes and all the little details that go with this task. Thank you to Sue Bownds as Show Secretary and Shirley Fraser as Show Manager/Treasurer have worked hard to ensure the success of the shows. They are backed up and supported by the rest of the committee.

Thank you to everyone who has sponsored prizes and ribbons as well as our major sponsors Blackhawk, Orivet, Show Manager and Plush Puppy. Our club is very appreciative of prizes that have been supplied by our major sponsors as well as donations made by our members.

This year we continue a new tradition of 3 special classes aimed at our much loved pet beagles. This year they will compete to win Best Trick, Best Stylish Hound and Best Top Pet Beagle. I wish everyone the very best and may the best trick/dressed and top beagle win.

Every year our club acknowledges those beagles that have excelled in their chosen dog sport, whether it is in the show ring or another field such as Noseworks. Congratulations to both the owners and beagles on the achievements that you have made. Please congratulate them as they are awarded over the weekend

Thank you for entering our shows and supporting the club. Those that support us each year by entering and those that have entered for the first time, we are glad to see you back and welcome to those that are first timers. I hope that you all will join us for afternoon tea with the judges on Sunday at the conclusion of the show. It is a great opportunity to socialise with fellow exhibitors and judges before heading home.

I hope that you all have a safe journey home and look forward to catching up with you again next year.

Gwenda Golding Memorial 112th Championship Show

Urliup Beagles

This year the 112th Championship Show will be held as a memorial show for Gwenda Golding who passed away last year. To honour her memory, the Best in Show and Runners Up in Show rosettes will be presented by Nerelle Wheat and Rhonda Towne, who is Gwenda's niece. On behalf of the Beagle Club of NSW Inc. I would like to thank them for accepting the invitation and for coming to present these prizes to the winning exhibitors.

I would like to share the following words which Sue Bownds wrote in her capacity of President at the time of Gwenda's passing. Unfortunately she was overseas at the time and was unable to attend Gwenda's funeral in person.

On behalf of the club, we would like to thank Gwenda for her years of hard work for the club in both the conformation and showing side, as well as with Rescue, which became Gwenda's passion later in life, after she stopped showing. Rescue worked within our club for over 15 years, where Gwenda worked with owners, carers, foster homes, vets and numerous organisations and later in 2018, Rescue became its own club.

Gwenda was honoured some years ago with Life Membership of our club. This was just a small thank you for her tireless work over a long period of time. For years, Gwenda was President and this was in the time where she attended meetings monthly. She was a hardworking president and committee member and spent countless hours setting up and maintaining the club website. But it was the rescue side where Gwenda did so much to make sure all beloved beagles had a home where a family loved and cared for them. Through donations, many of which occurred due to Gwenda she made sure we could look after homeless beagles as well as pay for their vets and ongoing expenses. In doing this, Gwenda built up a healthy bank balance just in case it was needed and there were times when it was. The club was indebted to her for everything she did for our wonderful breed, without ever seeking anything in return.

As complete newbies to the conformation/showing world my husband Brian and I were fortunate to count Gwenda and Nerelle as friends. In fact we ended up with a bitch called Urliup Quite Charming, who lived up to her name and was a 'charm' to live with. One year Brian took Charm and her litter sister Nickie over to Western Australia to compete at their speciality show and royal, he came back with a class win for Nickie. I remember many visits up the central coast, braving the drive way and rewarded with scrumptious afternoon teas and lots of beagle talk. Gwenda always took the time to talk to people and made them feel welcome sharing her knowledge of the breed and love for it.

Last year I had the honour of accepting the lifetime achievement award on Gwenda's behalf. When our club was tasked with nominating a person that qualified for this award, Gwenda's nomination was unanimous. Gwenda's passion for beagles was a commitment that was evident in her work within both the NSW Beagle Club and later on starting what is now Beagle Rescue NSW. Gwenda's legacy is a long lasting one, she made and will continue to make a difference in the lives of beagles that through no fault of their own need a new home. Her legacy is in every beagle that found a loving home on "her watch" and ones that have found their forever home since.

Liz Rosbach (Manahound & Manabay) USA/Australia CV

Though most people think I am Australian, I was born in NZ. My father was devoted to keeping our property resembling a “Botanical Garden”, thus having a dog was always quite out of the question no matter how much I pleaded. I’m sure it was not surprising to my parents that I became the proud owner of a puppy when I moved into my first home in Australia. Previously, my cousin had invited me to stay at their sheep station, adding that she had a new dog called a beagle. I had no idea what a beagle looked like (not having Google in those days). It was love at first sight. This beagle followed me all over the farm without a leash! Little did I know that this trait was rare for a beagle.

My first beagle was purchased from a member of the Victorian Beagle Club of Australia. Teaching at the same school as myself, Jill Kirk, a well-known beagle breeder and judge, suggested I show her. At her first show my beagle puppy had a wonderful time jumping, rolling on her back and rarely putting more than one foot on the ground at the same time. I was humiliated. Since that time, so long ago, I have had similar experiences with new puppies, but would rather have them happy and animated than shy and scared. After all the beagle is supposed to be a merry little hound.

I acquired my foundation bitch from Lesley Funnell, now Hiltz. This was the start of 15 years of successful co-breeding in Australia and importing lines from both England and the States. One of the offspring, Ch Manahound Matchpoint was one of the first beagles to receive the coveted Award of Merit from the National Beagle Council of Australia. Winning BISS shows, many times over the years, was exciting but more gratifying was when one of our co-bred beagles, owned by others, also won BIS. To this day Lesley and I have continued to co-breed.

Many years from my first introduction to this merry little hound, beagles are still my passion. Not only have I attended nearly all the National Beagle Specialties here in the States where I now live, but I have judged Beagle Specialties in other countries. Last July I was honoured to judge the Very Special Beagle Show in Denmark with an entry of 92 beagles. I have also judged specialties in Australia and the US.

Upon looking back to my early days of showing in Australia, the fondest memory I have is winning Best in Show with CH Torbay Tamarind, judge Vicky Scott. The following year, when her husband judged, she again was Best in Show which surprised me, as he had told me that no way would he have given her Best in Show the year before. I didn’t realize he was joking at the time!! Tammy was really the love of my life and I lost her too soon to cancer. Another beagle, I remember with nostalgia, was Ch Manahound Matchpoint . He won numerous Best in Shows, as well as siring many champions, such as Ch Manabay Milady’s Ace and, the most memorable for me, Ch Manabay Love on the Rocks, “Roxy” (Pictured at 6 months). She was a star from the earliest age and became a champion at 6 1/2 months, under strong competition. After showing her at Sydney Royal, when she was around 18 months, (entries in those days were around 130 beagles) I was surprised when the President of the Royal Dog Show came with the visiting judge from Italy, Paolo Dondino. I was offered an open cheque for her! The answer was a decisive “NO”. Roxy produced many other winners that I could mention but, to me, the above beagles are the ones who hold a place in my heart.

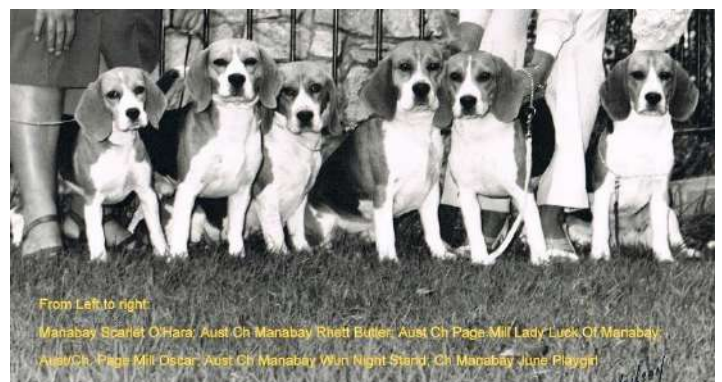

Best in Specialty - BCNSW - Judge Mrs Heather priestley (Pinewood Beagles UK)
Ch Manabay Love on the Rocks

Obviously, beagles are my favourite breed, or why else after 44 years, do I still love them, albeit a “love-hate” relationship? What other dog is your laidback sweet companion one moment in time.... to being that little monster who has just devoured the chocolates, destined for an overseas gift, hours before you are due to leave?

When I begin to judge, what do I look for in my beagle entries? Firstly, the beagle must reflect the salient points of the Australian Beagle Standard, and secondly, my eye is looking for the balance that will enable the dog to hunt tirelessly all day in the field. I like to view my dog on the table, and ask myself whether this beagle’s outline is clean and flowing, does it have a mild appealing expression and reflect its gender? Although judging is subjective, I have never considered myself a “fault” judge. I always look for the best in each exhibit but do expect the beagle to be free from aggression. In finishing this I would like to say I am excited to be asked to Judge the Easter NSW Beagle Specialty in Australia and know I will see many quality beagles. Thank you for this opportunity. It is also fitting that this show is the Gwenda Golding Memorial Show as I remember her well.
