Introducing Our Judge
Mr David Dawes

I received my first Welsh Corgi Pembroke for my 12th birthday and have had a corgi (or corgi's) continually ever since.

My prefix, 'Dawco' was first registered in 1966, and I have bred and shown Pembrokes ever since. I was mentored from a young age by Jean Johnson of 'Jodiwyn' fame who assisted me with my foundation stock and helped me acquire my first big winner from Max and Betty Schmarr, Ch Wendlake Flaming Linen sired by Ch Jodiwyn Beau Geste X Dam Wendlake Damask Linen.

I have imported a number of Pembrokes from the UK over the years, and more recently a dog in partnership from the USA. My first imported bitch 'Blands Glory Be' from Peggy Gamble mated to Wendlake Flaming Linen produced six champions in the first litter. Ch Dawco Midnight Sparkle, owned by Jean Johnson was from this litter and had an amazing show career and strong influence on the quality of Pembrokes in both Australia and New Zealand.

I have shown many Pembrokes to their titles over the years and bred many champions that have been shown by other Pembroke enthusiasts. Of note, Ch Dawco Dusty Sandman, shown by Athol and Betty Searston won many Best in Shows, including the Hobart Royal. Dawco Pembrokes have won many Specialty and All Breeds Best in Shows awards during my showing career.

All of my current Pembrokes trace their roots to this foundation stock. I am now enjoying working collaboratively with Liana Bettison (Aziah) and Robyn Smith (Curvo) on our future breeding program.

I have been a working dog judge since 2020, and I am looking forward to judging in Tasmania at the Corgi Specialty Show. Thank you for the opportunity to judge your show.

Thank you to the following for generously supporting this show.
