Held under the rules and regulations of DOGS NSW

I would like to thank the WOTD Club for holding today's show in memory of Sandi. As one of the Club's founding members she made no secret of the fact that this was her favourite show and was so looking forward to today's show.

Sandi was involved in Staffords for over 40 odd years and was just as enthusiastic from the day she bred her first litter until her untimely death. During those years she was a dedicated worker in various Clubs, especially the Stafford Social Club and the British Terrier Club of NSW of which she became the first Stafford member to become President and Life Member. She also volunteered as the Canine Rep. for the Bull Terrier Club and Scottie Club.

Over the years she bred some quality dogs such as Ch Mosstrooper Monty (her first Champion from her first litter, Ch Mosstrooper Get Mortal, Ch Mosstrooper Memphis Belle, Ch Mosstrooper Mink Devill, Ch Mosstrooper Majoryrazorblade, and Ch Mosstrooper Memphis Slim and Eng Ch Mosstrooper Making Mischief at Waystaff JW. In the show ring she was a gracious winner and a good loser and the happiest when beaten by dogs she had bred.

With friends and contacts in the U.K. she was able to import two dogs Eastaff The Oulton Broad (1998) and Waystaff Bite the Bullet (2011) and imported, most successfully, semen from Eng Ch Springsteen Boy (1993) and Eng Ch Waystaff Strikes Back JW (2009)

As many of you here today would know she loved a good talk and a laugh not only about Staffords but also life in general, it didn't matter whether you were a novice or veteran. It was true that someone once said she was an excellent ambassador for the breed. It wasn't unusual to hear someone wandering around asking for "Sandi" in the hope of finding a puppy.

So, I hope everyone gathered here today will remember her and make this a happy, joyous occasion full of laughter.

Glenn Consadine

Message from the President.

Good morning & welcome to our 11th and 12th Championship show weekend.

This is a special show weekend as we are honouring and remembering our friend and fellow Stafford enthusiast Mrs Sandi Consadine (Mosstrooper)

Sandi was a founding member of West of the divide and a committed committee member, she as many of us was a very proud Stafford ambassador. This will be our 1st show without her, but her honour will live on here at WOTD with the beautiful perpetual tropey that has been made for our future BEST in SHOW winners.

We have two UK judges, this being Martin's 1st appointment here in Australia and are looking forward to showing off the beautiful Staffords we have here in the Country.

Many thanks to Mr Martin Johnson and Mrs Gillian McDermott for accepting our invitation, Special thank you to Mrs Karen Johnson for agreeing to judge our property classes.

This weekend we have many wonderful prizes for the winners, an amazing raffle table with lots of goodies and our C-crate raffle that will be drawn after lunch on Sunday.

Thank you to my wife Kelly for all your hard work organising prizes and raffle goodies, Shaz for all the behind-the-scenes paperwork and approvals.

Massive shout out to all our amazing sponsors and sash donations!

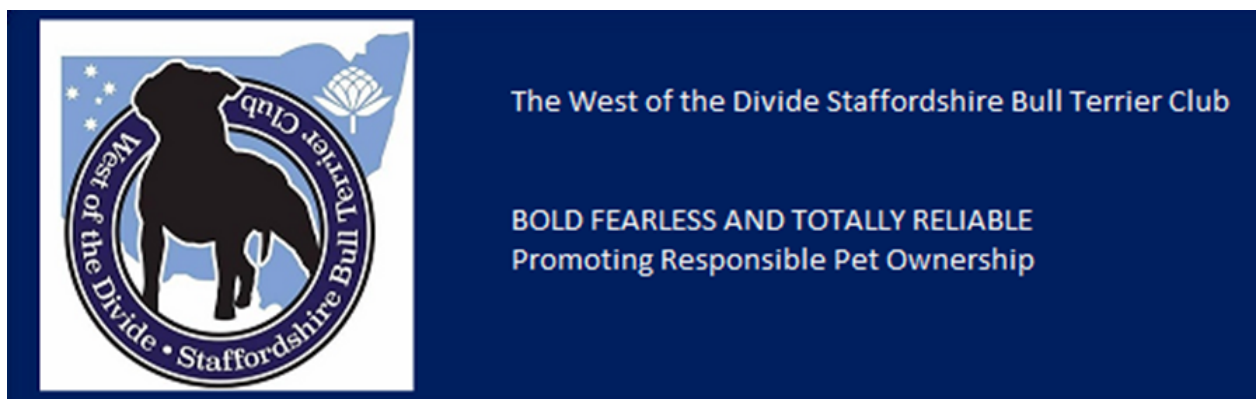

Special thanks to Karla @ PDF Logistics & Annabel @ The Wolf's Den your continued support is what helps keep small clubs up and running.

We are excited with the entries and hope Bathurst turns the heat up for us.

Now for the fun stuff, get those dogs ready and let's SHOW!

Lee Ballard

Message from the Secretary

Welcome to the Sandi Consadine Memorial Championship shows, this weekends shows are in honor of Sandi, a thoughtful, caring, and knowledgeable friend whose dedication to the Staffordshire Bull Terrier breed, was truly inspiring. Sandi's love for Staffords was more than just a passion—it was a lifelong commitment. She played an instrumental role in breed education, helping to organize training schemes for judges, attending Expos, and running breed education stalls to ensure that Staffordshire Bull Terriers were understood and appreciated.

Her generosity knew no bounds. Sandi was always happy to help whenever and wherever she could, supporting clubs beyond just her own. Whether as a donor, sponsor, or guiding hand in securing judges' resumes for club secretaries, she was a reliable force in the dog show community. She gave selflessly to ensure the breed—and the people devoted to it—flourished.

Through her work, mentorship, and unwavering support, Sandi helped shape many Staffordshire Bull Terrier enthusiasts, her kindness, wisdom, and dedication will never be forgotten.

Though she may no longer stand with us ringside, her legacy lives on in the friendships she cherished, the lessons she imparted, and the countless moments she shared with her beloved breed. Mosstrooper will continue on with Glenn and their daughter Megan, alongside her husband Michael—familiar faces to many in the show world—ensuring that Sandi's passion and commitment to Staffords endure for generations to come.

Thank you all for supporting this weekend. Sandi loved this club and the WOTD weekend, even if it took her a few days to defrost.

A big thank you and welcome to our judges, Mr. Martin Johnson and Karen Johnson who agreed to judge our property/fun classes. A first time appointment for you both here in Australia, we hope you enjoy your day. Mrs Gillian McDermott, welcome back to Australia, its a little cooler than your last appointment in Queensland.

As you can imagine, these shows have been extremely emotional for us to organise, I'd like to thank my husband Neil, Lee & Kelly who have all been great supports and shoulders for me to cry on.

I'd like to thank those behind the scenes, who has helped to make this weekend a success, Natalie Ann for her very kind donation of tug toys for 1 - 5 placings. Megan Consadine and Stewart Street Vets for your very generous donations. Michael Turnbull for helping with our set up, not forgetting David Lowe for his catalogue expertise.

Our major sponsors Wolfs Den and PDF Logistics, we can't thank you enough for your continued support of our club.

All our sponsors and donors, thank you.

Enjoy the weekend and lets have a laugh.

Shaz
