Introducing our judge – Ms Pia Kirke

Pia's association with dogs' spans over sixty years with her involvement with Poodles, Shih Tzu, Bullmastiffs and Löwchens. Over the past years Pia has bred, shown, imported and exported

Löwchens.

In 1961, 'Tilcha' was established and in 1976 Pia imported the first Löwchen into Australia. Since then, she has bred many Champions and 'in Group' and 'in Show' winners at both specialty and championship shows, here in Australia and overseas in the United States of America and the United Kingdom.

Pia was the breeder of the first Best in Show Löwchen in the world as well as being the importer of the first Best in Group dog in the world of which she can be extremely proud of. 'Tilcha' Löwchens have been exported to the United Kingdom, United States of America and New Zealand, with champion titles gained in all these countries.

Pia has been involved in numerous breed clubs in a variety of positions which has seen her take on the roles of President, Secretary and a committee member. She has also served on committee and was a trainer at the South Side Obedience Club.

Pia is licenced to judge Groups 1, 3, 6 and 7 which has resulted with her judging here in Australia and New Zealand. She also gives her time to mentor aspiring judges and trainee in the toy group, thus giving back to the dog fraternity.

Pia objective is to breed Löwchens whether that be as a show dog or pet that exhibit the correct type and have soundness of body, mind and spirit which is reflected in their temperament, health and soundness.

We welcome Pia and trust that she enjoys her appointment judging our 67th Championship Show
