PHIL BOYD MEMORIAL TROPHY 2026

The Bullmastiff Club of Queensland invited Phil to judge at the Clubs 20th Anniversary of Affiliation Show May 2025. During judging our show, Phil demonstrated both his love and immense knowledge of the breed. His good humour, courtesy and conduct at the show was fantastic with all exhibitors responding to his charm and enthusiasm. His treatment of new exhibitors in the ring for the first time was truly inspiring and illustrated the good natured way in which he conducted his judging appointment.

As such the club thought it fitting that our Best in Show Trophy for 2026 be named in memory of this extraordinary man, The Phil Boyd Memorial Trophy.

Phil came to Australia with his wife Sharon to judge the show, and to spend a few weeks exploring the sights of our sunny state. Enjoying time on the beautiful Gold Coast beaches and sampling the abundant restaurants and night life, they just loved it here. Phil was so grateful for the opportunity to visit here, a real bucket list destination.

Phil was a much sought after FCI judge with a deep love of Bullmastiffs, Dogue De Bordeaux and Molosser breeds and travelled abroad regularly for appointments with Sharon accompanying him. His quick wit, banter and vivacious personality won him many friends and he will be sorely missed.
